

Situational Reporting Procedures Involving Delayed Reports

USDA AMS has developed guidance for all commodities under the Livestock Mandatory Reporting (LMR) program involving issues which delay report publication. Situations can arise which may cause packer data submission delays. When these occur, AMS will wait for packer submissions before releasing reports up until 5:00 PM CST, then AMS will wait until the next business day to resume publication as well as give notification to customers.